Dr.M.Vishnu Prakash delivered a lecture on the history and importance of the Human Rights Day. The United Nations has announced that the theme of Human Rights Day this year will be "equality". It has taken the theme from Article 1 of the UDHR, which says: "All human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights." Human Rights Day is observed every year on 10 December – the day on which the United Nations General Assembly adopted, in 1948, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. The Universal Declaration of Human Rights empowers us all. The principles enshrined in the Declaration are as relevant today as they were in 1948.
